Then becoming a Montessori teacher may be the career for you!

There is a huge shortage of ECE teachers and this qualification is highly sought after by employers. A whole host of attractive employment opportunities awaits you both in New Zealand and worldwide!

WHY MONTESSORI?

A Montessori environment offers a unique approach to child development, assisting children to genuinely understand the world around them – to become independent thinkers and inquiring learners. The Montessori system has been flourishing worldwide for over 100 years – across six continents in more than 22,000 schools. In New Zealand, there are nearly 100 Montessori early childhood centres, 26 primary classes and 2 high schools … and growing!

WHY A.M.I.?

The Association Montessori Internationale diploma is the only internationallyrecognised Montessori qualification offered in New Zealand.
